

Cannabis in the Workplace

Kim Slade, Public Safety Health & Safety Association

Friday, June 21st, 2019 – 10:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Kim Slade works for the Public Safety Health & Safety Association as the Director of Emerging Markets and Commercialization. Kim is an accomplished Senior Executive who engages customers and collaborative partners in active learning, dialogue and product development. With a diverse background that includes marketing and communications, technical writing, product development and instructional design, Kim has led innovation, commercialization and learning with multiple organizations.

Kim has over 19 years of experience in the field of Occupational Health and Safety. Her most recent focus is on emerging occupational health and safety issues and commercialization. Kim has been engaged in various formal and informal research projects related to Cannabis in the Workplace and lead the development of an Employers guide to assist organizations prepare for legalization.

Kim has a Bachelor of Arts in English and Communications as well as an Adult Education Certificate from the University of Toronto Ontario Institute for Studies in Education. Kim is also the Co-Chair of the Canadian Standards Association Public Safety Strategic Steering Committee and she also sits on various Ministry of Labour working groups including topics such as mental health and impairment and Canadian Standards Association Technical Committees.